LDS Library

Most of you are aware that you can research most of your families through the LDS Branch Library. The Mormon Church has microfilmed the will books, marriage books and court minutes of most counties east of the Mississippi River. You can borrow microfilms to be read at the LDS library for 65¢ each for a two week period (and can be renewed for up to 3 months). For example: if you know your ancestors came from Cherokee Co., Ga. you can go to the LDS library and order superior and inferior court minutes, marriage books, will and probate books and deed books for the particular time period your ancestors lived there. It is not as much fun as going to the individual courthouses, but it gets the job done in most cases. If nothing else, several trips to your branch library can save you weeks on the road when you take your genealogy trips by eliminating courthouses where you know your ancestors didn't live.

Also available from your branch library are DAR cemetery and bible records which have been filmed. These are usually filed by surname and some are filed under individual counties or localities.

Look in the phone book under Church of Jesus Christ and Latter Day Saints with a sub-heading of Genealogy Library to find your nearest library or call the church in your town to find the city nearest you having a library. Don't be timid. They will show you how it is done.

Lt. John Martin

By: Mrs. Donald Webster (Naomi Martin)

Dedicated to her father - CLARENCE D. MARTIN

John Martin was born in Somerset County, N. J., the fifth of seven sons of Ephraim Martin and a direct descendant of the John Martin born in Somersetshire, England about 1620. The first John came to Mass. with his father, Isaac, while still in his teens. They were Baptists in search of religious freedom but met intolerance from those of other beliefs. In 1648 John is taxed at Dover, N. H. Here he married ESTHER ROBERTS, daughter of Thomas Roberts who had been their governor until N. H. was forced to join Mass. for protection from hostile Indians. About 1661 John and Esther moved to Oyster River in the Piscataqua region of N. H.

When news of the 1664 Constitution of N. J. promising every freeman 150 acres of land and permission to maintain any ministers they preferred reached N. H., the John Martin family with his brothers and friends moved tothis east Jersey area north of the Raritan River where only a few Indians lived. On December 18, 1666, John Martin, Charles Gilman, Hugh Dunn and Hopewell Hull received grants of land from Governor George Carteret. In 1669 Woodbridge boundries were laid out and when the charter was received on June 1 for the township the men founded the town of New Piscataqua, naming it for their former home. This is an Indian word meaning "Great Deer River" but the town name soon became Piscataway. Other settlers came from England and by 1682 there were about 400 persons living in Piscataway noted for their sober and industrious habits with all necessary provisions for themselves and their families.

The great grandson and namesake of the first John Martin in America was born to Ephraim and Hannah Martin in the fall of 1739 in northern Somerset Co., N. J. In this area he grew to manhood and married SUSANNAH CATTERLIN in 1760. She was his companion and helpmate for almost sixty years, raising a family of eight children named as follows: Ephraim, Joseph, Hannah, Phoebe, Sarah, John, Abner Catlin and Susannah. They made their home in Sussex County in northwest New Jersey and John served as a soldier in the Revolutionary War from there. Even today north Jerseys lake region is a scenic wooded area with many historic landmarks that has changed little since the first settlers came.

In June of 1776 John Martin enlisted and fought in many of the battles of Washington's campaigns during 1776-1778 back and forth across N. J. Maps show winter encampments of the Continental army on Middlebrook Heights north of Raritan River during two bitter cold winters. The British army took possession of Piscataway and most of the patriots removed their families to the back settlements.

It is said the Martin family of Piscataway had 19 of their members in the patriot army and their homes were searched and their families harrassed by the British. Four of Ephraim Martin's seven sons served in the Revolution: Col. Ephraim of the 4th New Jersey Regiment, Col. Edmond, Lt John and Private Reuben Martin. John's service record states that he was in the battles of Long Island, August 27, 1776; White Plains, N. Oct. 28, 1776; Strawberry Hill, N. J., 1777; Short Hills, N. J., June 26, 1777; Brandywine, Delaware, Sept. 11, 1777; and Ash Swamp and Ger mantown, Penn. on Oct. 4, 1777. He states [in his pension] that he w discharged owing to ill health in 1778 near Brandywine, Penn. under t hand of General Washington and Strykker's N. J. record says he retire on Sept. 25, 1780. In the pension application of his son Joseph's wi he states that when Joseph entered the service for one year in the la part of the war that John served in his son's place for one month to repel Indians near Minisink in Sussex county until his son rejoined t company. The pension record of his brother, Reuben Martin, refers to him as Captain John Martin and to brother, Colonel Edmand Martin. Bo records mention the battles of Brandywine and Germantown. Witnesses Reuben's pension application testify that the Martin brothers were sr active men, willing and excellent soldiers. John was 77 years old wh he applied for a pension and was granted twenty dollars per month fro August 10, 1818.

After the colonists won their freedom from England there was a great gration westward. John and several members of his family joined in. About 1787 they moved from the vicinity of Hardyston, Sussex Co., N. to Morris township in Washington Co., Penn. There was a large settle ment of Martin families in Washington and Greene counties of Penn. du ing the last quarter of the eighteenth century.

As so often happened to members of these pioneer families, when some moved to a new home word came back of how wonderful it was and soon others followed. John and sons with families moved on to Ohio Co., This became Tyler Co. in 1814 and is in West Virginia, since the Civ War. John Martin Senr. purchased 800 acres on Middle Island Creek fo 400 pounds current money of Penn. from John Caldwell. This is recor in Deed Book 4, page 71 of Ohio County records at Wheeling, W. Va. ing the next few years several deeds are on record at Middlebourne, Tyler county, made by John and wife, Susannah deeding land to their children. This scenic land is near Shiloh, W. Va., and has a narrow band of farmland along the creek with wooded pastures breaking into mountains. Middle Island Creek runs into the Ohio River near St. Ma Ohio. The last deed here is dated August 11, 1818, in old series 1, page 155, and consists of 97 acres on which John formerly lived. Su died in 1819 and is buried near Shiloh, W. Va.

On May 9, 1816, John purchased 160 acres of land in Athens county, O in Lee township from B. I. Gilman. The Martin family moved again on down the Ohio River and inland to the very southwest part of Athens county. This is rolling wooded country with a few pine trees. Ther an old Martin Cemetery on the corner section 19 in Lee township wher many of them are buried. When John deeded this land to his grandson he had planned to do on August 30, 1820, his pension was revoked but was lated reinstated.

John Martin lived with his daughter SUSANNAH WILSON and her son Jame took the name of Martin until his death on May 14, 1837, at the age 97 years, 6 months and 21 days and was buried in Blake cemetery in A ander Twp., Athens Co., Ohio. It was located in section 32, townshi range 14, but a later owner of this land removed the grave stones an piled them up. Later some were moved to the cemetery at Hebbardsvil about 2 miles north. Here in a small triangular area has been place flat white marble marker reading:

THOMAS MARTIN

He married JANE HUBBARD who was born 16 Aug. 1807 in the Shenandoah Valley, Va. and died 7 Feb. 1896, age 89 years, 5 months and 21 days. She is also buried in Tremble Cemetery. Thomas Martin is known to have had a brother named Rolla or Rolley and two sisters, Mahala and Sarah Martin.

In 1810, three men named Hubbard were living in Washington Co., Ind. - Peter Hubbard, Sr., Peter Hubbard, Jr. and Nicholas Hubbard. One of these is probably the father of Jane Hubbard who married Thomas Martin.

Jane Hubbard was of German descent and didn't learn to speak English until she was grown. She learned to read the Bible in English when about 50 or 60 years of age. Thomas and Jane Hubbard Martin settled 6 miles northwest of Salem, Ind.

    Thomas Martin was a pioneer Gospel preacher of the Cherokee Strip. He was a foreman of a stock ranch near Hazelton, Kansas when the Cherokee Strip was opened for settlement. He and his oldest son, Luther, made the "run" down the Medicine River crossing it about 2 and a half miles south of the line, from the east to the west side. The family sat in a covered wagon on the state line somewhere between Kiowa, Kansas and the river to watch a moment in history. After running about seven miles William Luther Martin jumped from the cart and drove his stake marking the claim. Thomas Riley Martin went on a little more than half a mile and staked his claim. Thomas and his wife, Eunice, lived the remainder of their lives on this farm. It was second bottom river land five miles north of Driftwood, Okla.

    Thomas Martin's day book was the the possession of Dean Lovell, a great grandson, in 1966. This day book contains recordings of marriages, deaths, unusual weather, farm data, receipts and some poems.

Witnesses: Phil Martin, Phebe Terrell. Proved May Court, 1769 by Philemon Martin.

The will of Rachel Martin which was proved May Court, 1777 is recorded on page 24 of the Minutes of County Court of Bute County, 1777-1779. It was made 30 Oct. 1771 and is abstracted by the N. C. Historical Commission.

Numerous other deeds in Bute Co., N. C. prove the relationship between this Martin family and their intermarriages with the Terrells and Benjamin Sims who married John and Rachel's daughter, name unknown.

On the tax lists of Warren Co., N. C. (found in the Warrenton Public Library) for 1781-1801 show this Martin family listed. But, none of the children of John and Rachel Martin were living in Warren Co. by 1787.

They all moved from Union Co., S. C. to Franklin Co., Ga. On 2 Nov. 1807 Nancy Martin gave power of attorney to John Martin (her brother) to represent her in connection with some land which had been given her by her mother which was in Union Co., S. C. and which was sold by her stepfather, Richmond Terrell, while she was a minor. There is a bill of sale 26 Nov. 1806, from Mrs. Sarah Terrell to James Martin. Many of the records of Franklin Co., Ga. prove that these Martin children were the children of Mrs. Sarah Terrell and they had lived in Union Co., S. C.

The will of James Martin omitted the son, James. Sarah later made a deed of gift to him found in Will Book 4 of Warren Co., N. C. It is proved at Jan. Court 1786.
